From Sally & Peter:

Peter and I are most grateful for the loving support given to us from St Brannock's during my recent stays in hospital. The cards and flowers have been much appreciated.

A special thank to Empathy for their kind thoughts, I hope to be back with you soon.

Sally Mitchell

From Lou:

In appreciation of all the love and support shared at dear Beryl's funeral. It has meant so much to us all. Lou & Family

From Brenda:

We would be grateful if you could extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone for the prayers, friendship and support for us during the last few difficult months. Your thoughtfulness and presence have been a great comfort and much appreciated. God bless. Brenda and family.

An Invitation

All Souls Service of Remembering with Thanksgiving

The service will include some well known hymns, readings and prayers. A gentle time where we can light a candle and remember those we love but see no longer.

St Brannock's Church, Braunton 4.00pm
Sunday 1st November

Welcome

OPENING HYMN No 19

All my hope

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Merciful God, teach us to be faithful in change and uncertainty that trusting in your word and obeying your will we may enter the unfailing joy of Jesus Christ our Lord.

READING 1 Thessalonians 2:1-8

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form,

he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

GRADUAL HYMN No 429

Love is his word

GOSPEL READING Matthew 22:34-46

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. 'Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?' He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.'" This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.' Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: 'What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?' They said to him, 'The son of David.' He said to them, 'How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying, "The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet'"? If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?' No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

OFFERTORY HYMN No 361

Jesus stand among us

POST COMMUNION COLLECT

God of all grace, your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.
