COLLECT OF THE DAY

Eternal God, whose Son went among the crowds and brought healing with his touch:
help us to show his love, in your Church as we gather together, and by our lives as they are transformed into the image of Christ our Lord. Amen.

READING Hebrews 7:23-28

Furthermore, the former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

GRADUAL HYMN No 167

Father we love you

GOSPEL READING Mark 10:46-52

They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!' Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

POST COMMUNION COLLECT

Merciful Father, who gave Jesus Christ to be for us the bread of life, that those who come to him should never hunger: draw us to the Lord in faith and love, that we may eat and drink with him at his table in the kingdom, where he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN No 755

Ye holy angels bright

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The House of Bishop have instructed that Holy Communion is to be received with the Common Cup (chalice). Therefore, at our Holy Communion services, the bread (wafer) will be offered along with the Common Cup (chalice).

You may wish to receive in one kind, the bread only, or, also drink from the Common Cup (chalice). Both forms of receiving Communion are full and valid.

To take into consideration.

If you are vulnerable health wise or you are feeling unwell, to keep yourself safe and others, you may wish to receive the bread (wafer) only. There is to be no intinction (dipping the wafer into the wine).
